

Baker County Behavioral Health Resource Network

As a Behavioral Health Resource Network (BHRN) provider identified by the Oregon Health Authority, we offer free recovery focused peer support programs for people in Baker County.

* Funds that support this program are made available through Measure 110, which invests public funds to create a more robust recovery services network throughout Oregon.

Types of Services Provided:

- ◆ SUD 24/7 Warm Line (541) 406-4444
- ◆ Housing Services
- ◆ Peer Support and health screening assessments
- ◆ Comprehensive Behavioral health screenings
- ◆ Employment Support
- ◆ Harm Reduction Services
- ◆ Referrals for STI/HepC Testing
- ◆ Medication for Substance Use Disorders (MAT program)
- ◆ Outpatient and Inpatient Treatment for Substance Use Disorders
- ◆ Low Barrier SUD services: we help you at any point in your recover journey.

Call our office at (541) 523-7400, or to speak to a peer directly, call our

24/7 SUD Warm Line at (541) 406-4444